Motion No. 7. Director Masters moved and Director Trapani seconded the motion to approve the Board Training Calendar opportunities for 2007. Motion carried 5-0-0.

GENERAL MANAGER REPORTS

1. Teen Center update – storm drains need repair; contractor will submit change order. Won't affect opening.
2. Tree Chipping – most volume to date, huge success in helping waste diversion and recycling.
3. Admin/Finance Committee meeting needed this month for midyear budget review prior to the next Regular Board Meeting. Agreed to meet 1/29/07 7:00 pm. Directors Brilliant and Masters.
4. Set up Committee meetings ASAP.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS COMMENTS AND FUTURE AGENDA ITEMS

1. Justin Masters - CIP timetable. What is status of EDH Blvd Master Plan? Can we use Tree Fund on Blvd? Status of water to Canterbury Circle?

2. Justin Masters - Volunteer Committee
3. Bill Vandegrift – light Promontory confirmed? Confirmed 1/31/07 6 – 8 pm. Are there gates at entrance?
4. Tony Rogozinski – recommends holding Town Hall meetings on a quarterly basis to try and engage the community. Seek County involvement.
5. Larry Brilliant – vandalism issue update (monthly report)? Vandalism continues – Murray Homestead affected. Fencing or bollards will cost approximately $17k. Should alert community. Increase communication = increase neighborhood watch. Also suggested taking measures for increased security lighting, particularly at North End of Community Park.
6. Larry Brilliant – asked the Directors to send him lists of top 3 items to accomplish in the next 100 days.

CLOSED SESSION

The Board went into closed session at approximately 9:07 pm.

President Brilliant asked if there were public comments on closed session items. No public comment. Brilliant closed the public session and entered closed session.
